Planner Begins Task Of Resolving Status Of $2M In Bond Accounts

By Frank Messina

Old money usually means wealth passed down from generation to generation.

In the Andover planning department, however, "old money" has taken on a whole new meaning.

To Steve Colyer, town physical planner, and the planning board, the term equals moldy performance bonds—money that a developer deposits in a trust account to guarantee that work started, like buildings, streets and construction sites, is completed.

But even with performance guarantees, sometimes a developer will run out of money or encounter some other circumstance and abandon the project in varying stages of completion.

This is why over $2 million sits inactive in special accounts. Some of it has been growing moss since the late 1970s.

For the past year, the planning

Appreciative Remarks, Reminiscences Mark Townsman Centennial

By Robert E. Finneran

The Townsman centennial celebration at the Andover Marriott last Thursday night featured a program filled with appreciation, entertainment and reminiscenses about the community the newspaper has served for these past over 100 years.

Irving E. Rogers, Jr., publisher, welcomed the close to 500 guests which included members of the Townsman and Eagle-Tribune staffs, Andover municipal leaders and businessmen.

Mr. Rogers introduced his mother, Martha B. Rogers, whose late husband, Irving E. Rogers, Sr., purchased the Townsman in 1949, and also other members of the Rogers family, representing the third generation to be involved in the operations of the Lawrence Eagle-Tribune, the Townsman and the Derry, N.H. News.

Stop Work Order Will Remain

The Planning Board Tuesday night approved a construction schedule proposed by developers of the Quailcrest subdivision, but declined to lift a stop-work order imposed by the board last month.

The stop-work order had been imposed because a work schedule had not been provided as required and excavations and earth removal in areas restricted by the board and the Andover Conservation Commission.

Children's Classic To Be Shown

The August 1 film at the DCS Family Movie Program in Central Park is "The Many Adventures of Winnie the Pooh," a children's classic the whole family is sure to enjoy. Disney's animation and the vocal talents of Sterling Holloway, Sebastian Cabot and Paul Winchell make for a fun-filled movie adventure. The movie begins at dusk.

Cholesterol Clinics Scheduled

The Andover Health Department will hold cholesterol screening clinics on Wednesdays, Aug. 3, 10, 17, 24 and 31, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon for Andover residents. The test is a fingerstick blood test which is placed in a Reflotron machine to measure cholesterol. Call the health department at 470-3800, ext. 255, for an appointment. The fee is $3. The clinics will be held at the Town Offices on Bartlet Street. Enter the handicapped entrance to the right of the stairs and turn left.

Rockabilly Band In Concert

What would two mailmen, a caretaker and a graphic designer have in common? They are the Rockabilly Brothers Band and they play rockabilly, a type of music reflective of the mid-50s and a cross between black rhythm and blues and country-/western.

Tom Hurley on guitar and his brother, lead vocalist Dan Hurley, have created music together since they were in their early teens. They were joined by bass player Marcel Collard and drummer Paul Day about two years ago.

The Rockabilly Brothers will play in Central Park on Wednesday, Aug. 3, at 6:30 p.m. The concert will be held Thursday in the event of rain.

The concert is part of the Department of Community Services Summer Concert Series which runs every Wednesday evening through August 17.

On Dean's List

Maureen Lane, daughter of Timothy J. and Kathleen Lane, Jr. of 2 Garfield Lane, was named to the dean's list of Boston College, where she will be a sophomore in the fall. Lane is majoring in marketing.

Residents On Committee

Four Andover residents are among those volunteering to be on the 1988 Bon-a-Thon committee to benefit the cancer management program at Bon Secours Hospital in Methuen.

Andover committee members include Marsha Elias, Esq., co-chairperson, Fred Arrigg, M.D., Daniel Rogacki and Donald Schroeder.

Bon-a-Thon '88 is an expanded version of the hospital's annual Bike-a-Thon held in memory of Mary C. Gelineau. It will include a 20-mile bike ride, five-mile walk-a-thon, swim-a-thon, and 200-mile, two-day bike ride through northern New England.

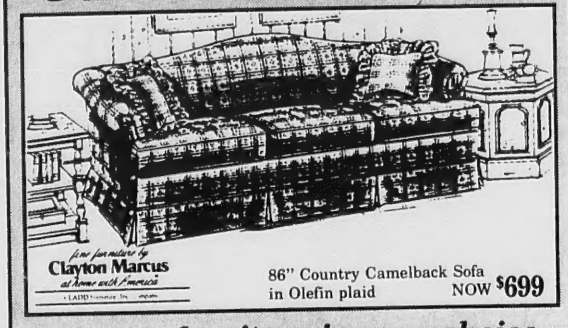

The hospital will begin a nine million dollar building project in January which will include the expansion and construction of a central cancer management facility. The new facility will include a dedicated inpatient unit, expanded chemotherapy treatment area and new radiotherapy service. Plans also include a rooftop garden area where cancer patients and their families can spend time together.

Bon-a-Thon '88 will be held Sunday, Sept. 25. Registration and pledge forms are available through the hospital's development department. For more information, call the hospital.

BABY TALK

by Jack Resnick

Resist keeping your new born infant in your bedroom at night. Your baby needs his/her own room. It's very important for the parents as well as for the child. A baby will sleep more soundly where he or she will not be disturbed or interrupted and can develop better sleeping habits. Do not tiptoe aroung. Live as normally as you did before your baby was born. Your first impulse is to be very quiet and keep noise to a minimum. If you desire to close the baby's door when he/she is sleeping, fine; but continue with housework or other activities as usual. Your baby will adjust to your way of living; you do not have to change your life!

IF YOU'RE A BUSINESS IN SEARCH OF A BANK...

"Arlington Trust Company spoiled us . . ."

Craig (left) and Debbie Schreck, co-owners of Midas Muffler and Brake Center of Seabrook, NH, discuss the Midas Muffler lifetime guarantee with Bernard Falcone, Regional Vice President/ Coastal Region, Arlington Trust Company.

Midas Muffler's motto is 'No one beats Midas'. As far as Craig and Debbie Schreck are concerned, no one beats Arlington Trust Company.

The Schrecks are co-owners of the Midas Muffler and Brake Center of Seabrook. They also own Midas Centers in Rochester, New Hampshire and in Newburyport. They have been with Arlington Trust Company since opening their Newburyport location in 1981, but when they opened their Rochester Midas Muffler Center in 1985, they felt they should use a New Hampshire bank.

"However, we became so upset with the service we didn't receive, that when we opened our Seabrook shop in 1986, we came back to Arlington Trust. Arlington Trust Company had spoiled us," Debbie explained. "Bernie Falcone got involved right from the start — he learned all about our business and its needs. And he's been our Arlington Trust representative all these years. In the single year we used the other bank, they changed loan officers on us three times!"

Arlington Trust Company has been serving the banking needs of businesses for nearly 100 years. If you're a business in search of a bank, come to Arlington Trust.

Friends And Neighbors, A New Team You Can Bank On.

If you feel like you're in a no-win situation when it comes to your finances, things are about to change.

Soon two friendly, neighborhood banks will team up to form an organization with lots more muscle and lots more money.

But nothing about their personalities is going to change. The same friendly faces will still be working there. They'll still call their customers by name. And the bank will still be very active in the local community.

Because of the merger, this bank will be able to make more loans and mortgages and provide an expanded array of products and services. And, it will be more convenient because there will be a total of eight convenient banking locations.

If you find it hard to tackle your financial problems, relax. Soon you'll be able to pass the ball to your friends and neighbors.

Sanborn School was well represented at the Computer '88 Fair held at the State House to demonstrate the value of computers in education. Show from left, Rep. Sue Tucker, fourth grade students Richard Snyder, Lauren Hacker, Aaron Cooper and Brian Kown. They were accompanied by their teacher June Blake and computer specialist Ken Kwajewski.

At The Playgrounds

Bancroft: The fourth week's activities included dioramas made by Ali Munroe, Kristy Moore and Michelle Dalton and macaroni art by Megan Roth, Lindsay Corcoran and Rob Piantoni. South Playground visited for a hockey game and Paul Allard, Mike Dalton and Jenn Munroe had fun even though they lost. "Come-as-you-are" day brought many p.j.'d kids such as Bridget Cruwys, Chris Lane and Margaret Adams. Alan Mackey, Jeremiah Couch and Liz Kelley enjoyed the pancake breakfast cooked by Mark DeCourcy and Laura. Stephen Mckey, Leslie Bobek and Eileen Sweeney made marshmallow men.

Sanborn: Water Country may have been postponed until Monday but the rain didn't put a damper on the day. Christina Carusone took charge and we had our own water country on the new playground. Halloween in July was a big sucess. Maura McConville was the prettiest Barbie Doll around. Amanda Firecano was a beautiful '50's chick and Jeff Smith made himself a scary mask. Julie Mullane was a number one gymnast and her sister was the best landscaper in town. Joe Shea was first to get the apple in bobbing for apples. Everyone from Karen Tessier to Renny Schofield enjoyed the donuts on a string. "Come-as-you-are" day was a big hit. Lauren and Kristin Sweeney wore their Alf nightshirts and Melissa Portorreal brought her bathrobe. The pancakes were so delicious that Tommy Clarke, Nick Guild and Tommy Hartwell wanted seconds. Great plays were made in the weekly baseball game by Jenna Hartwell, Sara Reef and Justin Yee. Erin McConville made another grass cup and Elaine Yee painted her papier mache in rainbow colors. Jeff Davis and Andrea Rizzo simply enjoyed painting.

South: The week started off with a victorious floor hockey team. South travelled to Bancroft with fine performances by Rocky Tradd, Mark Escott, Ricky Crispo, Brian Evans, Gene Doran and Ian Mooney. Deanna Conenti and Kim McKew went along and helped cheer the team to victory. The field trip to Water Country on Wednesday was postponed until Monday since the weather did not cooperate. The few stragglers who came to the playground enjoyed basketball and crafts. Gary Smyrlian, Mark Edwards, Marlo and Juliane Michaels, Laura Veno and Susan James gave strong performances in Bombardment.

West: Kickball started the day off on Monday. The usual players were Dave "Spanky" Charland, Brian Tisbert, Ronnie Hancock, Mike Costello, volunteer Greg Gigliotti, Amy Wilkins, Loni Johnson and Tara Coppola. The game continued off and on all day. Those who brought shoe boxes made diaramas. Owners of the spectacular art works included Katie Witman, Mike Dowd, Tara and Chris Cataldo, Ross Austin and Kathleen McCumber. Tuesday started with Mother May I and Simon Says. Later strong players in a giant game of Red Rover were Cody Frost, Anthony Rita, Jason Pratt, Aimee Ferry and Rashard Richard. The rain came after the ice cream man left and a game of Killerw as played inside. Water Country was cancelled on Wednesday due to the weather. We get to go Monday, weather permitting. Aimee Ferry, Tara Coppola, Amy Wilkins, Loni Johnson, Beth Cummins, Ross Austin, Dave Charland and Brian Tisbert remained at the playground and kept busy playing Pictionary and Hangman. Someone brought a music box and there was a lip syncing contest. Thursday was "come-as-you-are" day. Counselors Jenn and Becca remembered to wear their pajamas. We made pancakes and had juice and played wonderball inside and went outside to play kickball. Some stayed inside and made creations out of marshmallows. Jill Corkery made a crab, Kathleen McCumber made Mickey Mouse, Katie Witman made a snowman, Allison McClearn made a sailboat and Julie McClearn made a pair of weights. Friday was cookout day and the group quilt came out really well.

Shee-Hee/Shaw-Nee: The week started with "come-as-you-are" day. Some of the staff and kids came dressed in pajamas, everyone ate pancakes for breakfast and showed off their favorite stuffed animals. Jake Christopher brought his blue dragon, Mackenzie Jones brought a mom and baby monkey, Katie Rubino brought a wild Puffalump and Laura Espy brought a Minnie Mouse. Sarah Cote had Flip-Flop, Christen Fout had Butterscotch and Emily Cofer brought Figwick. Tie-dye and musical chairs were on tap for Tuesday. Jeffrey Begley won the game for the Shee-Hees. Then the rain came, so everyone played games in the gym. The rain continued on Wednesday so the Shee-Hees played duck-duck-goose while the Shaw-Nees played Steal the Bacon with Michelle Johnston, Tommy Lane, Jonathan Gagne and Caitlin Woo doing a great job. We made beautiful pinwheels and had show and tell. In the Shee-Hee room Matthew Johnston had a ghostbuster's helicopter and Seth Sempere had a stuffed bunny. In the Shaw-Nee's, Jennifer Flemming brought a horse, Eric Chute brought some crystal rocks and Brendan brought Emmett the Alligator. There was more rain on Thursday. We made string art with beads and string and popsicle sticks and played games in the gym. Everyone was really hyper so we had a dance contest and went on a follow-the-leader trip around the school. Alex Gostanian and Amy Wetterskog did a great job in the watermelon eating contest. Dominick Palumbo won for the Shaw-Nees and Brendan lost. We finished the day by making sun visors. The week ended with an obstacle course everyone enjoyed and we all pitched in to make squares to form a group quilt.

Ha-Kow-Wee: The week started with making shadow boxes; Josh Wilkie, Ryan and Jesse Whitworth and Robin Hall's creations were particularly interesting. Kristin Wilson, Jessica Coloumbe and Judit Vajda spent a little time making their masterpieces with a few rayons and paper. In an intense game of Nukem, the victorious team was made up of Tom Meagher, Christian Sempere, Jason Shaw, Michael Burton and Shaun Flynn. The Ha-Kow-Wee Kampers made bead jewelry on Tuesday followed by some tennis with Andrew Sempere and Leeann Shaw playing well. The afternoon, like almost every afternoon, was spent down at the pond. Stephanie Buck, Robin Hall, Matt Donohue ended up passing swimming tests. Wednesday's field trip to Water Country was postponed until Monday due to the weather, but Ha-Kow-Wee played a huge game of kickball with

August Dog Day Spins Away

Have you ever admired your dog's beautiful coat and wished you had something as lovely to wear? Join the August Dog Day festivities at the Museum of American Textile History in North Andover on Sunday, Aug. 14, and bring home a tribute to your pet—yarn spun from the dog's own hair.

"Dog hair can be spun just like sheep's wool. You can get wonderful colors and very soft yarn," says Consuelo Scarth, who will spin yarn from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. She will be joined by "spinsters" Carol Clough and Annie Service.

Bring a small plastic bag of clean, fresh dog hair with fibers at least one inch long. Hair from long-haired breeds, such as samoyeds, afghan hounds and collies, works best. The hair should be gathered when the animal is brushed, rather than clipped. Do not bring dogs to the museum and hair that contains fleas will not be accepted.

"We'll try to spin whatever is brought in, although not all dog hair will work," Scarth says. "Dog hair often has to be blended with wool or silk to make yarn." She says beautiful items can be made from dog yarn, including sweaters, boas, jackets, etc.

The afternoon's activities will include tours of the museum's current exhibits at 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m. Factory Labor: Shaping Work in America features antique textile machinery in action. A Museum Is... provides a behind-the-scenes look at what makes a museum.

Your livingroom isn't filled with sawdust. Why should your window store be?

Wading through sawdust, bricks and 2x4's at the lumber yard is no way to shop for windows.

Which is precisely why we created the Pella Window Store. Where shopping for windows is like shopping for fine furniture.

We believe in showcasing Pella windows and doors in beautiful room settings.

Bay windows in fully furnished livingrooms.

Skylights custom-mounted in the ceiling.

Sunrooms, completely finished.

What's more, our Pella sales people really know windows, inside and out.

After all, windows are their one and only business.

But perhaps the best reason of all to visit the Pella Window Store is simply this: it's the only place you can buy Pella windows.

So whether you're building, remodeling or just replacing a window or two, stop by the Pella Window Store.

You'll feel right at home. Because that's the way we planned it.

The Pella Sunroom Bay Window. A truly extraordinary custom design that lets the sunshine in and seals out the cold.

Volunteers

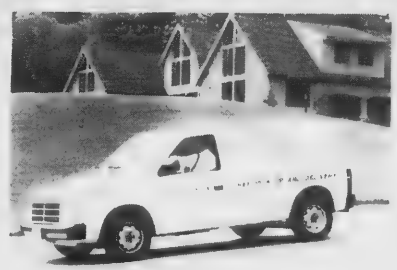

The Joslin Diabetes Center needs volunteers for a study to determine whether long-term complications of diabetes can be prevented or limited through the careful monitoring of blood-sugar levels. Participants must be between the ages of 13 and 39, have been on insulin therapy for fewer than five years and have no major complications associated with diabetes, such as eye, nerve and kidney disease.

Free diabetes supplies and treatment from an expert team of medical and research specialists will be provided.

Joslin is one of 27 centers in the United States and Canada conducting this study, which is sponsored by the National Institute of Diabetes and Digestive and kidney Diseases. Known as the Diabetes Control and Complications Trial, the study is the first to evaluate scientifically the theory that people with diabetes can limit their chances of developing debilitating or life-threatening complications.

Women, Negotiations & Divorce

Most property and custody settlements are reached through negotiations rather than litigation. Negotiations can be difficult when a marriage has broken down and feelings have been hurt. You may fear that you will be overpowered in this process by both your husband and your attorney, and be coerced into accepting a settlement which does not meet your needs. The advice of an attorney both knowledgeable in family law and sensitive to your fears and wishes can help you assert your rights and negotiate a fair settlement.

Raytheon Earnings Increase

Raytheon Company reported a 10.4 percent increase in earnings and a 2.7 percent increase in earnings per share on a 6.5 percent increase in sales for the second quarter of 1988 compared with the same period last year.

Earnings rose to $122.3 million, or $1.84 per share, on sales of $2.041 billion. In the second quarter last year, the company earned $110.8 million, or $1.50 per share, on sales of $1.917 billion. For the first six months, earnings were $235.6 million, or $3.52 per share, on sales of $3.990 billion. In the same period last year, earnings were $212.6 million, or $2.87 per share, on sales of $3.668 billion.

Higher sales, improved operating performance and lower taxes all contributed to the increases in company-wide earnings in the second quarter. In addition, earnings per share were further improved by fewer shares outstanding.

"As we reported in the first quarter, Beech and Energy Services have turned around," said Raytheon Chairman Thomas L. Phillips. "As a result, all five business segments were again profitable in the second quarter."

Total backlog at the end of the quarter was a record $8.756 billion, including record funded U.S. government orders of $6.432 billion. Total backlog at the end of last year's second quarter was $8.258 billion, including a government backlog of $6.029 billion.

Electronics, led by defense electronics systems, continued as the largest contributor to sales and profits.

Beech Aircraft continued its profitability throughout the second quarter principally due to sales growth in domestic, international and U.S. government markets. Sales of the 1900 commuter airplane continued to be strong. Beech received Federal Aviation Administration type design certification for Starship on June 14. Production continues for deliveries next year.

Energy Services continued to be profitable in the quarter. Sales were down for the period compared with 1987 due to lower "pass-through" sales. These were partially offset by increases in profit-generating sales for engineering and technical services made possible by the transition of United Engineers & Constructors and Badger to a more diversified business base.

Although Major Appliances reported sales increases in the second quarter compared with 1987, profitability was down primarily because of increased costs in basic metals and continued price competition.

Other lines, led by improvements at Cedarapids, recorded good increases in both sales and profitability in the quarter compared with last year.

Provisions for federal and foreign income taxes were $55.3 million in the second quarter and $104.8 million in the first half, compared with $59.3 million and $115.2 million, respectively, last year. The effective tax rates were 31.1 percent in the quarter and 30.8 percent in the half. In the same periods last year, these rates were 34.9 percent and 35.1 percent, respectively.

Earnings per share are based on the average number of shares outstanding during the period. This year, average shares outstanding were 66.6 million in the second quarter and 66.9 million in the first half, compared with 73.8 million and 74 million, respectively, last year. In the second quarter 938,700 shares were purchased, completing the acquisition of 20 million shares previously authorized by the board of directors.

Total employment at the end of June was 76,800.

Peace Vigil Set For Common

The North Andover People for Peace will hold its fourth annual Peace Day Celebration/Hiroshima vigil on the North Andover Common on Sunday, Aug. 7. Festivities start at 7 p.m. with conflict resolution exercises and role play. Other activities, including orgami crane making, posters, singing, poetry and reading, will follow. A silent candlelight vigil will be held at dusk in remembrance of the victims of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

August 6 marks the 43rd anniversary of the bombing of Hiroshima, the first use of nuclear weapons in warfare. An estimated 70,000 persons were killed and another 70,000 were injured in the atomic blast over Hiroshima on August 6, 1945. Three days later, a second atomic bomb was dropped on the city of Nagasaki.

There has been a growing movement to set aside a National Day of Peace on the first Sunday in August. This holiday would create a time for Americans to reflect on the prospect of peace among the peoples of the world.

Sunday's celebration and vigil will draw into focus the horrors of nuclear warfare and the hope for a world at peace. All activities are free and open to the public. Candles, posters, markers and orgami paper will be provided. Refreshments will be served in North Parish Unitarian Church following the vigil.

"The Stetson Ball" will be a black tie gala celebrating the American west with elegance and style. Chairmen of the event committee are Barbara Liss, president of the LGH Aid Association, and Robin Neill,. who is also chairing the benefit sponsorship committee.

Since joining RCA in 1982, her string of hits includes "Some of My Best Friends are Old Songs," "Save Me," "Too Hot to Sldep," "I'm Not Through Loving You Yet," "I Wanna Say Yes" and "Maybe My Baby."

Masked Man

The identify of the mysterious "Man in the Iron Mask" was a secret in the 17th century and is still a secret today. In 17th century France, during the reign of Louis XIV, a tall, well-dressed man of courtly bearing was imprisoned in the Fortress of Piguerol. The prisoner was treated with respect and allowed special privileges. However, there was one thing he was forbidden on pain of death to do: show his face. Alexander Dumas romanticized this story in his great novel, "Man in the Iron Mask." However, it's a well-documented fact that the mask was black velvet, not iron, and fastened to the prisoner's face not by rivets of steel, but by fear.

Kohl, pastor of Faith Lutheran Church, 360 S. Main St., started his new job Monday. The Faith Lutheran parish held a farewell brunch in honor of him and his family July 10.

Kohl came to Andover in 1977, after serving at First Lutheran Church in Brockton. Ryan Named Coach Of Year

By Rick Harrison

For the second time in five years Andover resident and Lowell High varsity boys' basketball coach Charlie Ryan has been selected District 1, Division 1 "Coach-of-the-Year" by his peers in the Massachusetts Basketball Coaches Association.

Ryan, who lives at 4 Cindy Lane with his wife and two sons, Sean and Kevin, will receive the award at the annual MBCA Hall of Fame banquet scheduled for October 2 at the Venus de Milo Restaurant in Swansea.

Ryan last won the prestigious honor in 1984, and receives it again in 1988 after leading Lowell to a 17-6 record, second place in the Merrimack Valley Conference Large School Division, the Eastern Mass. Division 1 North championship and a berth in the four-team state tournament.

Ryan, who completed his 13th season as LHS head coach and his 20th overall with the program, has 198 career victories and four appearances in the EMass. North final over the past five years.

"I'm especially pleased to receive this award because it's voted by the coaches," said Ryan. "Ballots are sent out through the mail and every high school coach participates.

"It's not an individual honor, however," emphasized the highly-successful hoop coach. "I share it with all my assistant coaches and, of course, the players.

"There were a lot of other outstanding men up for the award again this year."

Among the other coaches Ryan beat out were Andover High's Tom Ryser, Bob Farias of Lexington, Bill Horton of Lincoln-Sudbury and Dick Licare of Central Catholic.

Ryan is also in line to receive a special 20 years-200 victories award, presented to Bay State coaches who have reached one or both of those plateaus.

Planner

board has been making noises about cleaning up the mess. So far, nobody has managed to find a broom big enough to handle the job.

"The bottom line is," said Colyer in a memo to the board last week, "we have a lot of housecleaning to do."

Indeed. There are no less than 31 expired performance guarantees on the list Colyer is tackling first, bonds that expired between 1981 and last month.

The main problem has been the time-consuming research involved, Colyer told the board at their meeting Tuesday night. Looking up the files and analyzing 10-year-old notes attached to one performance bond alone last week took the planner about half a work day.

"This is going to be a complicated process and it's going to take a lot of time...there are little flubs and glitches here that are unbelieveable," said Colyer.

At the meeting, Colyer proposed breaking the list down into three categories:

- Subdivisions whose bonds have recently expired whose guarantees could be extended to the next Town Meeting.
- Long-term expired bonds that need research to determine their status.
- Projects considered nuisances, such as abandoned subdivision sites, where the expired bonds should be seized by the town and the funds released or the work completed.

However, taking over a bond is difficult because the developer will generally contest it in court. Currently the town is involved in litigation over a $14,000 guarantee with developer Arthur Kalogianis over his Olympic Village subdivision on land located off Woburn Street.

Colyer said he would have all bonds on the list separated into one of the three categories by the Aug. 9 board meeting.

Andover High School Gets New Assistant Principal

By Julie M. Barry

Timothy Thomas was named assistant principal at Andover High School following a recommendation by Superintendent of Schools Kenneth Seifert and a unanimous vote by the School Committee members who attended a meeting last Friday afternoon.

Committee member Susan Poore was not present for the vote.

Thomas was one of three candidates being considered for the job. All three were interviewed by the committee at its July 19 meeting.

The job opening became available after Wilbur Hixon, assistant principal for 13 years, moved up to the principal's post in 1987.

Thomas was the acting assistant principal during the vacancy—the 1987-'88 school year. Next year he will be a full-fledged administrator worth $48,500.

Thomas proved he was capable of handling the job, according to Seifert. "He performed the duties extremely well," the superintendent said.

Hixon agreed. "I think he's demonstrated that he does an outstanding job," he said.

As an administrator, Thomas will be working with a variety of people. But that's not a problem, according to Seifert, who said "he works extremely well with administration, faculty and teachers."

In addition to his involvement with the high school, Thomas volunteers in community activities such as the A Better Chance Program and Andover Soccer Association.

"He never sacrifices his professional and personal standards—no matter what he's doing," Seifert said.

Student activities make up one of the major responsibility assigned to the assistant principal. Hixon says Thomas handled this area well last year. "He did a lot to build school spirit," Hixon said.

The School Committee endorsed the recommendation. "I'm very pleased," said committee Chairman Donald Robb. He referred to Thomas' leadership ability and his knowledge of Andover High, saying he did a "good job" this past year as acting assistant principal.

The assistant principal must have a master's degree and experience as a secondary school teacher and administrator.

Thomas has a master's in biology and also in education administration. He has been employed by the Andover school system for 12 years. He taught science at the high school for 11 years and was science department chair during the last six, before becoming the acting assistant principal in '87.

The years spent as science department chair gave Thomas leadership and administration qualifications which will be beneficial in his new position, Seifert said.

"He has all the makings of an outstanding administrator and future principal," Hixon said.

Shooting Spree Damage In West Andover

Vandals damaged vehicles at seven West Andover homes in an all-day bb gun shooting spree Sunday.

Police say they began getting calls from angry residents shortly after 10 a.m., continuing to almost 6 p.m. According to Lt. Kevin Lynch, the perpetrators probably drove by and fired the bb gun at the rear windows of the cars, which were parked on front lawns or in driveways.

Nobody was able to catch a glimpse of the vandals and stepped up police patrols of the area failed to produce a suspect.

"You're only talking about 15 to 20 seconds to commit the crime and leave the scene," said Lynch, who added that chances were slim that patrol units would be able to catch a single random vandal or group in the act.

Streets affected by the shooting spree include Wild Rose Road, which had three homes a few hundred yards apart hit at different times. On Monday, another Wild Rose residence a few blocks away was struck. Other homes affected by vandalism on Sunday were located at Bellevue, Green Wood, Sunset Rock and Haggetts Pond roads.

Lynch said the area isn't normally a target. "It's considered a very quiet neighborhood, we don't have many problems there. Maybe that's what attracted them."

If caught, Lynch said the vandals would be charged with malicious destruction of personal property. "We would also seek restitution for damages," he said.

Tim Thomas Plans To Increase Student Participation

By Julie M. Barry

It's no longer an act. As of July 22, Timothy Thomas officially became the assistant principal at Andover High School. He was the "acting" assistant principal during the 1987-'88 school year.

Prior to that, Thomas was a science teacher at Andover High School for 11 years and he spent the last six years as science department chair.

Thomas also filled in as assistant principal for half of the school year in 1984. He took over for Stephen Richardson, who was acting as principal for Mary Jennings during her maternity leave.

Thomas says he's looking forward to being the assistant principal. Scheduling and student activities are the main responsibilities assigned to the job.

With this in mind, Thomas said his main goal next year is "to achieve a greater segment of the school population in school activities."

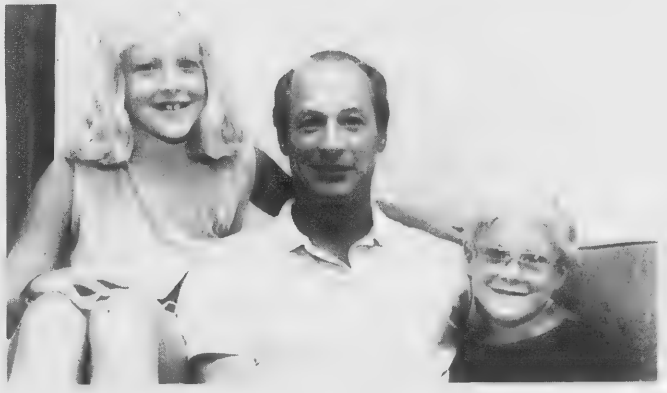

And, he added, there will be a number of student activities scheduled at the beginning of the school year to show that high school events are options for weekend activities.

There will be a cookout Sept. 23 before the first home, night football game and a dance, featuring WAAF disc jockey Rick MacKenzie, is scheduled for Sept. 30.

Offering a wide range of student activities that appeal to all groups is one way to increase involvement, according to Thomas, who noted several activities that were initiated last year.

He helped organize a rock concert and cookout behind the school and Battle of the Bands—both featured student bands, and each event attracted a large crowd.

The high school turned into a video dance club at Club Coca Cola, another program Thomas helped organize. The students were able to watch themselves and "real" videos on a big screen television. Proceeds from this fund-raiser went to Special Olympics and to future school activities.

Timothy Thomas, the new assistant principal at Andover High School, is pictured here with his two children, Kalley, 8 and Michael, 7. Thomas and his wife, Melinda, and children live on Main Street.

By increasing involvement in student activities, Thomas hopes that a "sense of community" is established at Andover High School and the positive attitude will spill over to the classroom—the students' relationship with the teacher will improve, he said.

Townsman Celebrates 100 Years

Philip K. Allen, former Andover selectman and state senator, was one of three speakers who remembered Andover's past. Allen talked about the growth of the town and some of its notable residents.

Tom Ellis, former Channel 7 anchor man, was the evening's master of ceremonies. In a personal presentation, Ellis reflected on his career in the news business.

Miss Hispanic Week was on hand at the event to greet the guests. She is Glorivee Mendoza, 19, daughter of Andover Postmaster Antonio Mendoza and his wife, Zoraida.

Entertainment was provided by the Artist Showcase Singers, one of whom, pictured here, portrayed "Miss Massachusetts Turnpike." The group cracked jokes and sang arias and selections from Oklahoma.

Celebrating In Style

By Melissa M. De Meo

It's not every birthday party that has 500 guests.

But, of course, a 100th birthday party is something to be celebrated.

And that's exactly what TOWNSMAN staff, readers, advertisers and their guests did July 21—celebrate.

The grand ballroom of the Andover Marriott was decorated with blue and white balloons and a huge blue-lettered banner that read "Andover Townsman, 100 Years."

In the back of the room stood an ice sculpture of the number 100.

That's 100 years of publication, 39 of them under the leadership of the Rogers family. Irving E. Rogers, Jr. is now publisher of The Andover TOWNSMAN.

Mr. Rogers and his family were at Thursday night's party, as were past and present TOWNSMAN staffers and department heads of The Lawrence Eagle-Tribune, which the Rogers family also publishes. Advertisers, readers and prominent Andover residents also helped the paper celebrate its centennial.

"It was a great program," said Jerome Russem, owner of Russem's Ladies Apparel Shop in Olde Andover Village and Lawrence. "It was very impressive, the number of friends they (the paper) have."

"It was beautiful," said Paula Leed-Aron, co-owner of Royal Jewelers, Plus in Lawrence.

Tom Ellis, the former Channel 7 anchor man who was master of ceremonies, said he tried to keep the evening light-hearted. "It's a fun occasion," Ellis said after the party. "I didn't want to make a formal presentation."

A group of four singers called the Artist Showcase Singers added more cheer when they performed everything from Rodgers and Hammerstein to Rossini. They also led the crowd in singing "Happy Birthday" to The TOWNSMAN.

As the evening waned, so did the ice sculpture. But the ballroom was almost constantly abuzz with chatter and the clinks of glasses and silverware. Guests were treated to a dinner of filet mignon and shrimp, followed by a chocolate birthday cake for each table.

"The party and dinner—everything was well-planned," said Mike Cook, manager of A.E. Park Corp. in Lawrence.

"The fine food and hospitality of the Rogers family was very much appreciated," said Frank Leone of Andover, owner of Leone's Furniture.

The first TOWNSMAN actually appeared Oct. 14, 1887, but Thursday's celebration coincided with the publication of its centennial section—128 pages on the history of the paper and the town it has covered all these years.

Some of the people whose names used to be in the staff box attended the party. Former business/advertising manager Raymond DeRuisseau, former editor Marcelle Farrington and retired staffer Bertha Folley were some of the past TOWNSMAN employees who came to renew friendships and relive old times.

But DeRuisseau said it's often the people who aren't in the limelight who deserve the most credit. He cited Timmy Zembruski as an example. The late Mr.Zembruski worked at the paper in the 1950s and was responsible for picking it up at the printers' in Lowell and bringing it back to Andover to be addressed.

"He never missed a Wednesday," DeRuisseau said. "You could count on him; and that's important."

"I have always found the staff to be efficient and congenial," said Dr. Thomas Sheehan.

"It's a friendly place to visit," said Rep. Susan Tucker (D-Andover), who gave Rogers a congratulatory resolution from the state legislature.

Frank Leone, a former TOWNSMAN photographer, said the event was more than a party—it was a history lesson. "It was interesting to hear the chronological history of The TOWNSMAN," Leone said. "I learned some new things." One of those things was that Ida Grover, sister of the late TOWNSMAN publisher Elmer Grover, was his Latin teacher at Punchard High School. "I never knew she was connected to The TOWNSMAN," he said.

"It's been interesting to see how it's grown from a 20- to 30-page paper to an average of 90 pages today," Leone added. "And it's viable. Instead of being a gossip paper, as it might have been 50 years ago, it's a real newspaper."

Every table was treated to a chocolate birthday cake at the end of the meal, which included filet mignon and stuffed shrimp. The theme colors of the party were white and blue, the color of The TOWNSMAN's name on page one.

About 500 staffers, readers, advertisers and guests turned out for the once-in-a-lifetime celebration, held July 21 in the grand ballroom of the Andover Marriott. The party coincided with the publication of The TOWNSMAN's 128-page centennial section.

Rep. Susan Tucker (D-Andover) wishes The TOWNSMAN a happy birthday on behalf of the state legislature. Tucker's was one of six signatures on a state resolution of congratulations to the newspaper.

Seated are his nephew Walter E. Rogers, Eagle-Tribune marketing director; mother, Martha Rogers; and son Irving E. Rogers, III, assistant business manager of The Tribune.

Helen and Leo F. Daley arrive at the Marriott for the centennial celebration.

TOWNSMAN staffers and their guests at table 14 enjoy one another's company. Clockwise, from front center, is Marilyn Ellis, owner of Chilton-Ellis Associates advertising agency; Loretta Gonsalves; Bob Currier; TOWNSMAN advertising representatives Carol Glidden, Pauline Fontaine and Melinda Thomas; and Timothy Thomas.

OPINION

A Good Policy

The Andover school committee last week adopted a no-smoking policy, with stiff penalties for non-conformance.

While it will take another vote by the committee at its Aug. 16 meeting to become offical and thus enforcable, the effort by High School Principal Wilbur Hixon and the school board is commendable.

Undoubtedly there will be complaints about the policy and its incumbent punsihment for non-compliance.

But, the effort is there to produce a more healthful person through not only aiding smokers to kick the habit, but also to make the air more palatable for those who don't smoke.

There is little doubt that smoking is injurious to one's health.

The state legislature has mandated that smoking in all Massachusetts schools will be prohibited beginning in 1989.

Principal Hixon, in his recommendation to the school committee, indicated that implementing the no-smoking policy in the schools this year would be beneficial now, rather than waiting a year to get the program underway.

We agree.

Hixon indicated that waiting to put a policy in practice in conformance with state mandates would allow two more classes to go through the school years then face the sudden halt to the puffing on the infernal weed.

The policy will not be confined to students alone.

Faculty members, who may find it more difficult to refrain from smoking due to pursuing the habit over a lengthier period of time, will be forced to use restricted smoking areas to take a puff, if they are so inclined.

In the long run, such action may produce a cessation of the habit by those so inclined.

Violation of the smoking policy, which is not confined to simply smoking, but also having smoking materials on one's person, results in some rather stringent punishment, such as five detentions for the first violation.

Suspension is the punishment for a fourth-time violation. Saturday suspension is the action taken for second and third violations.

The plan, devised by Hixon, also has some benefits which students may opt to take advantage of.

Planned is a 'Kick The Habit' program, which a student may attend rather than going to detention.

Getting assistance may be the proper course and be more beneficial than detentions in the long run, since it will offer assistance in removing the addiction to tobacco on a long-term basis.

There is an even more advantageous part of the Hixon recommendation. The long-term goal of the no-smoking program is make the entire school building smoke-free, and that can only mean a healthier younger generation, as well as a healthy faculty and staff at Andover High School.

We must assume that when the school committee convenes on Aug. 16, they will simply ratify their decision of last week and provide for a healthier Andover High.

It will do much to underscore the theory that Andover's educational policymakers are interested in the total education of those in their charge.

THE PUBLIC FORUM

Comply With Meeting Law

To Donald Robb, Chairman, Andover School Committee

My purpose in writing is to express my concern that the school committee appears to have difficulty understanding the League of Women Voters' attentiveness to the open meeting law.

As you are aware, there have been instances in the past where some local appointed and elected town officials have violated this law. It is not the league's intent to harrass the committee or in any way hinder the business of the committee.

One of the fundamental principles of the League of Women Voters is to "promote an open governmental system that is representative, accountable, responsive; that protects individual liberties established by the constitution; and that assures opportunities for citizen participation in government decision making."

The league strongly feels that the openness with which government operates is a measure of its strength. The open meeting law is an important instrument for ensuring that the people's business is public. The league, nor any other citizens' group, should not feel compelled to watch over the governing bodies of the community to ensure that those bodies will comply with this law. It is not unreasonable for the public to expect that their governing officials willingly comply. Regardless of how many individuals attend or watch on cable television, accurate postings of meetings is the responsibility of each official group.

The league supports the open meeting law and will continue to monitor all local official groups. We see this as our civic responsibility and in the public interest. We look forward to the time when the governing committees of Andover, without exception, will conscientiously comply with the open meeting law.

Ruth Scarbeau, President
League of Women Voters of Andover

Willing To Participate

To The Editor Of The TOWNSMAN:

The final report on 1987-88 activities of the Andover Secondary Parents Group was presented to the school committee on July 19, 1988. Our work this year centered on issues in the areas of curriculum and instruction, budget and finance, after-school activities, community communications and student placement. Several group members were responsible for improving the positive communication mechanism within the secondary schools. Another member sponsored town-wide meetings for promoting a teen center. Members of another subgroup researched the budgeting process of the school system. Interviews with teachers and administrators helped another subgroup understand the student placement process in both the junior high and the high school. The final report presented on July 19 gives testimony to the fact that parents are willing to participate in discussions concerning the secondary schools and are willing to work with teachers, administrators and other parents in addressing issues. We acknowledge the positive support we have received this year from the school committee, the school administration and many teachers.

An important section of the final report, submitted to the school committee on June 28, pertained to the February 1988 questionnaire sent out to all parents of secondary school students. Participation in the survey was surprisingly high at 29 percent. Many of the survey respondents also chose to include commentary on various aspects of the secondary schools as well as to offer opinions and suggestions for improving the schools. The results of the survey were compiled by Susan Tenofsky, Judy Reghitto, Martha Wright, Kathy Salvi, Carol DiStefano and Debby Moggio with formed the curriculum and instruction subgroup. Copies of the survey report are available at the business office on the second floor of School Administration Building. A reference copy is also available at Memorial Hall Library.

In closing, I would like to invite those parents interested in working with us next year to give me a phone call or write me a note so that a membership list can be updated.

Teaching affects a limited number of students, he said. But being an administrator will enable him to have an impact on all of the students. "It's a chance to change things in the building for the entire student body and faculty," he said.

Hospital Group Uses MRI

Through a cooperative undertaking, six Merrimack Valley hospitals, known as Merrimack Valley Health Services, have pooled their financial resources to bring the technology of mobile magnetic resonance imaging to Merrimack Valley residents.

MRI is an advanced, diagnostic imaging technology which uses a safe, yet powerful, magnet, radio wave pulses and computer analysis to produce high contrast, high resolution images of the body's internal organs and tissues. Unlike CT scanning, MRI uses no radiation when probing the body and requires no injections of allergenic dyes or contrast agents often used with CT.

How does MRI work? The answer is based on a fundamental principle of physics. Since the body is composed largely of water, or hydrogen atoms, MRI operates through the predictable behavior of the nucleii of these hydrogen atoms when placed in a strong, magnetic field.

The patient is slid into the core of a powerful magnet in which the hydrogen atoms in the patient's body align themselves in organized fashion. Then, a harmless radio pulse is directed at these aligned atoms, causing them to sping, or "resonate," in random fashion. When the radio pulse is turned off, the atoms return to their magnetically aligned positions. In doing so, they emit radio signals of their own which are picked up by the MRI scanner's antennae and fed into computers that translate the signals into images of internal organs and tissues.

An added advantage of MRI is that the technology can "see" through bone, making it an ideal modality for diagnosing conditions of the head, joints and spinal column. This latter application makes MRI an excellent alternative to myelograms, a diagnostic modality now in general use, but one which can often be painful and risky.

The hospitals which comprise MVHS are Amesbury Hospital, Amesbury; Anna Jaques Hospital, Newburyport; Hale Hospital, Haverhill; Lawrence General Hospital, Lawrence; Lowell General Hospital, Lowell; and St. John's Hospital, Lowell.

Each hospital shares the services of a mobile MRI unit on a regularly scheduled basis.

MRI diagnostic imaging services are provided by individual members of the MVHS consortium on the following schedule: Monday, Lawrence General; Tuesday, Friday, St. John's; Wednesday, Lowell General; Thursday, Anna Jaques; Saturday, Sunday, schedule varies.

Hale Hospital is expected to come on line during the summer while Amesbury Hospital will begin offering mobile MRI services within the next year.

Patients should ask their physicians to call Merrimack Valley Health Services.

Trends in Kitchen and Bath Design

by Kevin Hennessey and Sean Walsh

CLEAN COUNTRY AIR

Colonial kitchens decorated in the "country" style used to feature dark wood cabinetry, richly-patterned wallcoverings, and endless arrays of collectibles. Bold floor patterns and colors competed with curved-wood motifs for the eye's attention. Appliances were usually green, gold, or rust tones, and ornate hardware embellished raised-panel cabinet doors. Today, however, country is moving toward a refreshing style change. This is best exemplified by wood cabinetry which features a pickled, or white-stained finish. This new wood-finishing technique allows woodgrain patterns to show through for a brighter, less heavy-handed effect. To complete the look, small patterns and paler pinks and blues replace the rich blues and reds of years past. Today's country look moves out of the dark and into the light.

By keeping rooms light, simple and airy looking, an illusion in the room's size is created. If your kitchen is small, design it so that all available space is used to its fullest capacity. This is where the expertise of a kitchen designer is of immeasurable value.At VARIATIONS IN WOOD, INC., we design with your space needs in mind. Call us for assistance soon. You will find us conveniently located at 2370 Turnpike St., Route 114. To reach us, call 685-4056.

Gold Captures Doubleheader

By Rick Harrison

Andover Gold bounced back from its worst defeat in many years with a vengeance last Saturday, clobbering the visiting Reading Rockets and Wilmington Wildcats in a Greater-Reading Pony League summer baseball doubleheader at the Andover High varsity field.

Gold, which strengthened its bid for a fourth straight GRPL division championship and a shot at its third league title in four years, belted Reading 12-2 in the morning and hammered Wilmington 19-0 in the afternoon.

Two days later AG made it three consecutive lopsided victories and two straight shutouts, whitewashing the Reading Jets 12-0 behind a 20-hit attack at Morton Field in Reading last Monday night.

AG's productive weekend hiked its overall record to 13-3 this season and 64-11-4 overall in four years of Greater-Reading League play.

Gold, hoping to nail down its playoff berth and the division crown, hosted the Reading Astros last night and has what could be a winner-take-all showdown with co-Western Division power Lynnfield this Saturday morning at the Lynnfield Middle School field (10 a.m.).

Andover Gold, 12-2

Bill Batchelder fired a three-hitter, striking out eight and walking four, as Gold avenged one of its three defeats (8-5) by drilling the Reading Rockets who could have tied for first place in the division with a win.

Batchelder has now whiffed 78 batters in 42 innings, allowing just 21 hits and walking 26.

Batchelder also paced the AG attack with a double, single and four RBI, while Mike Sullivan rapped a two-run double and collected three ribbies.

Gold, which has scored in the first inning 10 times this summer, inched ahead 1-0 in the bottom of the opening stanza as leadoff batter Matt Orlando singled, stole second, Scott Halecki walked and Batchelder slapped an RBI single.

Bryan Smith lined into a doubleplay to prevent further trouble for the Rockets.

Reading moved ahead 2-1 in the fourth, after leaving runners stranded at second and third with one down in the third session.

Batchelder then issued a pair of one-out walks in the fifth, but finished with a flourish by retiring the final eight Reading batters in order (three strikeouts) without permitting a ball out of the infield.

Gold, meanwhile, broke the game open by parading 12 batters to the plate and scoring seven runs in the bottom of the fourth.

Consecutive walks to Smith, Jim Landry and Mark Hopkinson started the uprising. Run-scoring singles were slapped by Peter Arthur and Landry (the second time around), other hits were laced by Jim Hanning and Smith, and three runs crossed on wild pitches.

Gold added four more in the fifth with walks to Matt Daniels, Mike Famiglietti and Matt Orlando setting the stage for consecutive two-run doubles by Mike Sullivan and Batchelder.

Matt Orlando reached base five straight times (three walks) and stole two more bases, while Batchelder and Smith smacked two hits apiece.

Andover Gold, 19-0

Gold's second shutout of the season was crafted by southpaw Jim Hanning, who scattered five hits, struck out 11 but kept things interesting by walking nine.

Wilmington stranded 14 baserunners in the game, and centerfielder Peter Arthur preserved the shutout with an excellent bases-loaded, diving catch to end the sixth inning.

Mike Sullivan and Bill Batchelder continued their heavy hitting, Sullivan clubbing two more doubles for three RBI and Batchelder collecting three ribbies with a pair of singles.

Bryan Smith drove home two runs with a single and long sacrifice fly, while Matt Orlando and Matt Daniels each contributed two hits, one RBI and three runs scored.

Todd Murray came through with a pair of ringing singles, one good for a run, and Jim Landry was a perfect 2-for-2 including a bloop RBI single that landed just behind the pitcher's mound.

Scott Halecki reached base five times and scored three runs, Jim Hanning walked twice and singled, Mike Daley lashed a single and drew a bases-loaded walk for a run, and Peter Arthur hammered a crisp double down the leftfield line.

Matt Daniels had an exceptional game at catcher, snagging three foul popups and picking a Wilmington runner off third base.

Andover Gold, 12-0

Matt Orlando came through with his strongest pitching performance of the season against the Reading Jets, yielding just a pair of infield singles en route to the club's second successive shutout and third whitewash of the year.

Gold wasted no time taking the lead as Orlando walked, stole second and raced home on Bill Batchelder's first-inning triple to left-centerfield. Bryan Smith then spanked a single to rescue Batchelder.

A six-run Gold second featured a walk to Jim Hanning, single by Peter Arthur, RBI double by Batchelder, two-run single by Smith, single by Jim Landry and RBI single from Mark Hopkinson.

The last four runs came in the fifth on RBI singles by Mike Famiglietti, Mike Daley, Arthur and a fielder's choice by Orlando.

Bryan Smith paced the offensive barrage with 4-for-5, including a double, and three RBI.

Bill Batchelder contributed a near-cycle single, double and triple, good for two RBI, while Jim Landry went 3-for-5 with a double and two singles.

Mark Hopkinson belted a double and single, Matt Orlando finished 2-for-4, Peter Arthur 2-for-3 and Mike Daley a perfect 2-for-2.

Matt Daniels drilled a single.

The sharp defense (one error) was led by Mark Hopkinson at shortstop (four assists), Peter Arthur in leftfield (three putouts on long flyballs), Orlando on the mound (five chances) and Batchelder behind the plate.

All-Stars Stay Alive In Tourney

By Rick Harrison

The Andover National Major Little League (11-12 years) All-Stars split a pair of games last week to remain alive in the 1988 District 14 Tournament, moving to the championship round where they were scheduled to face undefeated Billerica American earlier this week.

Billerica American threw A-N into the loser's bracket with a 3-2 victory in the double-elimination semifinals, but Andover climbed into this week's title round with a subsequent 2-0 triumph over Billerica National.

Andover National (4-1 in tourney play) had to beat Billerica American (5-0) twice this week to capture an unprecedented third straight District 14 crown.

The first scheduled game of the championship round was washed out last Sunday, pushing the Andover-Billerica showdown to this past Tuesday night.

If A-N won Tuesday a winner-take-all final was slated for last night.

Billerica American, 3-2

Lefthander Rick Saggese (1-1) fired a strong five-hitter, fanning six and walking five, but the effort fell just short as Billerica American's Jon Delisle (3-0) was a shade better.

Delisle, who had tossed a pair of shutouts against Lowell Oliveria (3-0) and Andover American (1-0) in previous tourney outings, yielded four hits, walked just two and struck out four.

Andover National drew first blood in the top of the third, Brian Flanagan ripping a two-out double to centerfield, moving to third on a wild pitch and scoring when Paul Allard's grounder was misplayed.

Billerica responded with two runs in the home half of the stanza, loading the bases on consecutive one-out walks to Jim Egan, Dana Dulong and a single by Delisle.

Catcher Jerry Keefe lofted a sacrifice fly to leftfield, plating Egan, and Dulong subsequently crossed on an errant relay throw.

Billerica notched the winning run in the fifth when Egan beat out a bunt single, Dulong walked and Keefe slapped a one-out double.

That left runners at second and third, but Dulong was nailed at home on Tim Darcy's grounder and Saggese whiffed the next batter to kill the inning.

Catcher Paul Allard led off the Andover National sixth with a homerun, but Delisle retired the final three hitters on two flyballs and a strikeout to end the game.

Todd Harris and Toby Guzowski contributed singles for A-N.

Andover National, 2-0

Southpaw Toby Guzowski's third strong tournament outing kept Andover National alive, as he whitewashed Billerica National 2-0 with a three-hit semifinal round masterpiece at Poulin Field in Tewksbury.

Guzowski, who has yielded just seven hits and fanned 27 in 18 tourney innings, walked four and struck out six.

It was A-N's second victory over Billerica National, although the previous 9-1 romp was achieved with much greater ease.

Colin Murphy, the same pitcher Andover slapped around in the 9-1 game, was much sharper here as he tossed a route-going four-hitter.

Seven walks hurt Murphy, however, and two free passes to Paul Allard and Rick Saggese led to Andover National's first run in the bottom of the third. Ryan Moynihan rapped an RBI single to rescue Allard with the eventual game-winner.

The insurance run came in the fourth when Matt Chapin reached on an error, Dan Hansbury bunted him to second, Todd Harris' fielder's choice got him to third, and Brian Flanagan's grounder chased him home.

Andover had Murphy in constant trouble, but the Billerica hurler left 10 runners stranded and was tough in the clutch.

B-N's only serious threat came in the top of the third, when it was still scoreless, as they loaded the bases with two down on Rich Walukiewicz' single, Eric Wiitala's bunt single and a walk to pitcher Murphy.

Walukiewicz tried to score on a pitch that skipped past catcher Paul Allard, but Allard alertly retrieved the ball and nailed the B-N runner at the plate to end the inning.

Moynihan finished the game 2-for-2, while Hansbury and Allard added singles for Andover National.

Flanagan was a defensive standout at second base with a diving catch of a line drive.

Snack Bar Opens

The Andover Little League announces the completion and opening of a combination snack bar and storage area at the Chandler Road Little League fields. This project was under the direction of Red Harris who designed and supervised the building throughout its completion. Bob Henderson arranged the financing.

Andover Little League extends appreciation to Stockwood Electric for donating all the electrical work, the Andona Society for a generous contribution and the cooperation of Andover town officials.

It is expected that the snack bar will provide a needed service to the families and friends of all who participate in the program.

After Charles Lindburgh made history with the first solo flight across the Atlantic, he came home by ship.

Andover Blue, the 1987 Pony League champs, rebounded with three straight wins after having a seven-game winning streak snapped. They defeated the Stoneham Tigers 10-4, Reading Jets 7-1 and the Reading Y's Men 18-11. Pacing the hitters was Adam Brown with 7-for-9 including two home runs, a double and six runs batted in, Bobby Sheehan with 7-for-11 to boost his batting average to a team leading .405 and Brian Novelline's 5-for-9, including a double, triple, homerun and seven runs batted in. Todd Allard pitched eight runless innings, a complete game win, to raise his record to 4-0 with an incredible earned run average of 0.58.

Permanent Waves Unisex Salon

Proprietor Judy DeLuca is pleased to announce that "Our high quality standards of doing business and giving the clients what they want, instead to what the hairdresser wants, has created a fabulous first year in business for us. Due to this success, Permanent Waves Unisex Salon has expanded the salon with two new, exciting services for you, the client. We are proud to have Susan Simard (formerly of Merle Norman), an expert in Critique Make-up Artistry, join our staff. We are also introducing full leg and body waxing for women."

Susan offers individual instruction in make-up application and color concepts. She will advise on how to buy and apply cosmetics and will assist the customer in choosing what cosmetics that she already owns are appropriate for her complexion and suggest what cosmetics that she already owns are appropriate for her complexion and suggest what new ones should be added. Shes does not advocate tossing out all your present cosmetics and starting from scratch. She teaches skin care essentials and corrective make-up. Susan gives recommendations on coordinating cosmetics with a specific outfit. She is skilled at introducing preteens to proper skin care and appropriate make-up for health and beauty. Susan is available for make-up applications for photography, theatrical, video and wedding parties. She "will travel" to accommodate the customer.

Permanent Waves Unisex Salon is located at 315 E. Haverhill St., Lawrence, at the corner of Marston St., just off the 495 Marston St. exit, in the former C & C Beauty Supply Building. They are open Monday through Saturday. Telephone: 975-2134.

Imagine That has moved next door to a brighter and more spacious location. Their beautiful floral displays, both fresh and silk, and a wide variety of gift items are artfully displayed in the new setting. Owners Carrol Stephens and Mary Cox are better able to serve their customers with a wider selection of fresh flowers due to the enlarged capacity of their new walk-in refrigerator.

Although weddings are their specialty, they offer arrangements to meet all your floral needs: business, bar mitzvah, functions, personal, anniversy, sympathy, birth and any special occasion you may wish to remember with flowers.

In addition, this unique shop carries a wide selection of gift items. Silk plants, flowers and trees (with natural branches), brass, balloon bouquets, ceramics, baskets of every description and novelties may be purchased. They have introduced a new line of personalized, custom made wall plaques.

Carol and Mary will assist in coordinating any function and are available for floral interior decorating consultation. They have complete nationwide wire service for those you would like to remember who are out of town.

SELL WITH SILENCE AND SPACE

There are two elements that help sell homes more effectively during the showing. One is undistracting quietness. The first thing prospective buyers should hear when they step inside is – NOTHING. The TV set should be off and so should the radio. You can also forget about that recording of "mood music" spinning on the stereo. If the prospects cannot stand that music or the performer, they won't be in a good "buying mood" at the start. As Realtors, we want them to be impressed by the serenity and security of your place the moment they enter. Silence at that point can do wonders.

A second important element is the look of space, especially extra storage space. Make your closets, basement, attic and garage (the usual lifelong collection areas) appear extra roomy by giving them a thorough cleaning. After all, the less you have to move, the better. What better time to start weeding out the valuables from the junk than BEFORE you show the house, not after?

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

REAL ESTATE GUIDELINES

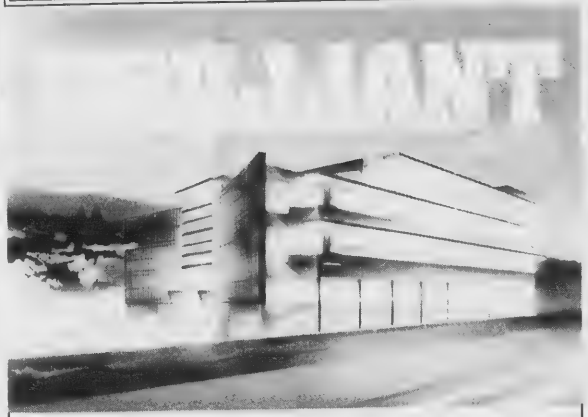

By Ann Campbell, G.R.I.
Realty U.S.A.
Schruender Real Estate

FINANCING A RENOVATION PROJECT

When you're shopping for an Adjustable Rate Mortgage, an important item to consider is the margin. Each time your loan is adjusted, the new interest rate will be tied to an index of Treasury notes. The margin is the percentage point above that index where your rate will be set.

Let's say that you have a one year ARM with a 2.5 margin. You initial rate was 7.5%, and during the first year you had the loan, the index of 1-year Treasury notes was at 6.25%. The rate for year 2 of your loan would be adjusted to 8.75%. With a margin of 2.75, it would increase to 9%. Some lenders will offer lower initial rate with higher margins, and this means that after the first year, your subsequent rates could be higher than had you opted for a higher initial rate with a lower margin. If you're confused by the various lender's offerings, ask a professional Realtor to sit down with pencil, paper and financial calculator to show you how it works.

If you are considering a move, contact the professionals at Realty USA Schruender Real Estate. Call us at 685-5000 or stop by our offices at 73 Chickering Road, North Andover.

At last. A first-quality office building in the Merrimack Valley that makes a powerful architectural statement. Now under construction at the Andover Street/Rte. 133 exit off I-495 is Apple Hill Executive Office Park, 42,000 s.f. of exceptional office space that will put a shine on your company image. Apple Hill offers suites of 1,250 s.f. or more on four stories—and architectural distinction that's rare this side of downtown Boston.

The Key to Results in Real Estate

Townsman

Townsman staff, Mr. Rogers spoke of his commitment to the principals of John N. Cole who founded the paper in 1887 with the words that Andover, with its history, population, business and institutions deserved its own newspaper, which he said reflects his own sense of purpose for today's paper.

The publisher was introduced by Tom Ellis, Boston television newsman, who in his remarks commented about his early career in the newspaper business in Texas.

Mr. Ellis, in saluting the observance of 100 years of service to Andover by the Townsman, also made note of the recent presentation of the Pulitzer Prize to the Lawrence Eagle-Tribune for their reporting on the Horton Case and Jail Furlough program in Massachusetts.

Following dinner, entertainment was provided by The Artists' Showcase Singers, a program which included operatic arias, show tunes and some comedy.

This was followed by presentations by three Andover residents who have served the community in various capacities over many years, and reminisced a bit about Andover, then and now, and the contributions the Townsman had made to the community.

Phillip K. Allen, former state senator and Andover selectman who also served as an assistant secretary of defense, noted that although Andover was increasing in popularity, it retained its small-town atmosphere.

He recalled the May breakfasts at town hall, Memorial Day observances, Saturday night bean suppers and skiing and sledding on Phillips Street in years gone by.

In more recent years there has been expansion of the West Andover Industrial Park, the merger of Phillips and Abbot Academies, the opening of the Collins Center for the performing arts and the founding of Merrimack College under Father Vincent McQuade, its first president, Mr. Allen told the audience.

He paid tribute to some Andover people he felt contributed much to the community naming Louise VanEveren, Karl Haartz, Harold Rafton, Dina Hammond, Bessie Goldsmith and Jack Moses, the late rector of Christ Episcopal church who assisted the town and Philips Academy. The others all had interests in conservation.

In his 'rambling sampling of thoughts,' Mr. Allen said that he almost bought the TOWNSMAN in 1947, concluding with congratulatory remarks for Irving E. Rogers, Jr., publisher.

Leo F. Daley, who captained the football team at both Phillips Academy and Harvard and is a member of the Punchard-Andover Athletic Hall of Fame, commented on the Townsman's first publisher John N. Cole.

Mr. Daley, who has served on several town committees, said that Cole was a great and noble speaker, a dominant factor in Andover town meetings, an ability Mr. Daley felt was considerable in view of Mr. Cole not having had any formal education.

He told of Mr. Cole serving in the state legislature and almost being nominated for lieutenant governor, failing to win due to the Boston influence in the selection process.

Mr. Daley said it was 'fortunate that ownership of the Townsman is in the Rogers family which guarantees strong financial times and strong editorial content to insure it will continue to be a great weekly newspaper in this state.'

Frederick P. Fitzgerald, who has served on the school committee and finance committee and was the recipient of the Community Service Award this year from the Andover Chamber of Commerce, reminisced a bit about meeting his wife and coming to Andover from Lawrence many years ago.

Mr. Fitzgerald told of visiting a soda shop on Main street, about where Nazarian's is located now, many years ago on a Sunday afternoon and afterward going out and looking up and down a barren Main street.

He had kind words about his relationship with the people of the Townsman, Bob Finneran, the editor; Michael Masessa, the business manager and Raymond B. DeRuisseau, retired business-advertising manager, concluding his remarks with appreciation and congratulations to Mr. Rogers, the publisher.

Rev. Jack L. Daniel, Jr., pastor, Free Christian Church gave the invocation and Rev. Arthur D. Johnson, OSA, pastor of St. Augustine's, offered the benediction.

O'Brien Joins Planners

John O'Brien Jr., appointed to the planning board last month, attended his first board meeting Tuesday night.

O'Brien, 28, replaces Donald Ellsworth, whose term had expired. Ellsworth, who was originally appointed in 1985, declined to seek an additional term due to time constraints imposed by his job and family.

O'Brien served for six months on the Andover Housing Partnership Committee. He works as a lawyer for the Massachusetts House Ways and Means committee, chaired by Lawrence State Senator Pat McGovern.
